ADAM FISHER ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT

Glenelg Football Club on-baller Adam Fisher has announced his retirement from league football.

Adam has been an integral part of the rebuilding process at the club and has been a consistent performer throughout his career. Recruited from the Melbourne Football Club whilst a rookie listed player, Adam played 92 games for the club.

Adam's other achievements include:

- 2005 & 2009 Glenelg Football Club Best & Fairest winner
 - SANFL State Team Representative 2006 & 2007
- Glenelg Football Club Vice Captain 2006, 2007 & 2008

Senior Coach Mark Mickan paid tribute to Adam, saying "Adam Fisher has been a wonderful contributor to the Glenelg Football Club's drive to become a force in the SANFL competition. He is a natural leader who has set extremely high standards of professionalism in his quest for team success. His two best and fairest wins are indicative of his football ability. The respect Adam is afforded by the whole football community is indicative of his character. We wish Adam and his wife Kimberley well. They are always welcome at Glenelg".

The Glenelg Football Club would like to congratulate Adam on his career and wish him all the very best for the future.
